Chandratal – Manali

Brief Description

Hampta Pass trek is one of the Signature treks in the Kullu Region of Himachal Pradesh. The Hampta Pass offers breath-taking views of the two different sides of the Himalayas. On one side of the pass lies the lush green Kullu valley and on the other side is the stark opposite desert valley of Lahaul. Starting from Manali, the Hampta Pass trek takes you through the lush green forests of the Kullu Valley, across the stunning Hampta Pass at an altitude of 4,270 meters approx. and finally descends to the Spiti Valley, offering stunning panoramic views of the surrounding mountain ranges, glaciers and valleys. One of the major highlights of the trek is the visit to high altitude Chandratat lake in Spiti. The trek is of moderate difficulty level and is preferred by both beginners as well as experienced trekkers. The maximum altitude attained gained during Hampta Pass trek is 4200m (approx.) and total trek distance is 35km. While returning from the trek, the drive is over the famous Rohtang Pass. This adds to the list of attractions of this trek. The trek is a perfect blend of adventure, beauty, and challenges that every trekker craves for.

The Organizer, The Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCC&I), India's oldest Institute of its kind, has been working in sustainability space for many years. BCC&I's vision of integrating tourism with sustainability has converged in preserving India's natural heritage while unlocking new tourism opportunities.

BCC&I believes, it is important to connect the stakeholders with the "essence of sustainability" by curating experiences amidst nature's landscapes with their challenges as well as rewards.

Being a vanguard of Industry and Commerce, BCC&I also believes that our own human capital may enriched and excel by learning from journeys manoeuvring 'nature's own created hurdles'.

BCC&I, on a regular basis, takes participants from various industries to places like Havelock Island (Swaraj Dweep) in the Andaman Islands for Scuba Diving Exploration.

BCC&I's designed initiatives, not only provide an adventurous experience but also emphasize conservation, awareness and local community engagement.

The Organising Committee includes Angana Guha Roy Chowdhury, Assistant Director General of BCC&I, with extensive high altitude trekking experience, the highest points being Kala Patthar (5545m) and Everest Base camp (5364m).
